

Temperature: N/A

Reflective cracking:

There were no construction activities. The current focus of the project is material characterization. It is expected that the construction of the reflective cracking site will start again by the end of July, 2011.