

Temperature: N/A

Reflective Cracking:

An enclosure has recently been built and installed on the wall near Reflective Cracking Site. The enclosure will be used as the host for IOTech DAQ system and electrical power. A fixture to fit the MTS machine to perform the AASHTO T 323 test for AC/PCC interface bond characterization is under development. It is expected that the construction of the reflective cracking site will start again by the end of August, 2011.